Bishopric

One of my favorite scriptures in the Book of Mormon comes from 1 Nephi Chapter 10 verse 19. “For he that diligently seeketh shall find; and the mysteries of God shall be unfolded unto them, by the power of the Holy Ghost, as well in these times as in times of old, and as well in times of old as in times to come; wherefore, the course of the Lord is one eternal round.” Brothers and Sisters, it’s true. I have personal experience with the reality of this promise, as I know many of you do. If you feel you haven’t, well, you most certainly can. Our day may have challenges that other dispensations didn’t. We live in that auspicious but difficult time known as the last days. And yet, in spite of the differences between our time and other’s, our Father in Heaven remains constant in His dealings with His children. Revelation comes to us now the same as it did in the past. The mysteries of heaven are given to those who diligently seek the Lord. And those who have humility and faith and diligence have the privilege of communing with the Almighty. The formula of revelation is unchanging my friends; it ever has been and always will. Nephi saw what he saw and experienced what he experienced because he applied this powerful principle. And Laman and Lemuel remained in the dark because they refused to. God lives, and Jesus is the Christ, His holy Son, the very reason we can receive Divine communication from Heaven. Moroni’s council to us is imperative: “And now, I would commend you to seek this Jesus of whom the prophets and apostles have written, that the grace of God the Father, and also the Lord Jesus Christ, and the Holy Ghost, which beareth record of them, may be and abide in you forever. Amen. (Ether 12:41).” If I may, I second that clarion call to all in the latter days. May we all continually seek the Lord’s guidance and help through prayer and the diligent study of His words is my prayer, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Elder's Quorum

Brethren,

We hope you all had a wonderful New Year. Enjoy your holidays with your Family and friends.

A few changes to note for Elders Quorum- Brother Luke Ercanbrack was asked to attend the newly formed Portuguese Branch so he'll be released soon from the Elders Quorum Presidency. Speaking of, Brother and Sister Moore "have the virus" (sounds like a quote from the Adromeda Strain!)- they are doing okay for now but please keep them in your prayers along with anyone else who has Covid19 or is sick...

We have made significant changes in the ministering assignments for the elders quorum and those assignments are now posted online. We will also be sending out a brief message with your assignments via mail so expect those shortly. If for some reason we have missed you on the ministering assignment and you would like to have one, please contact me, brother Stephen Merrill or Brother Gary Moore as soon as possible as we have many more families who need ministering then we have brothers available to minister. And while you're at it, please take a moment to look at who ministers your family as it's just as important that they contact you as soon as possible. Ministering has changed so much and it's now so easy to do that we should have 100% in our quorum. All it takes is a caring attitude towards those you've been assigned and each of you will be successful!

Again we hope that all is well in your world and that you know that you are loved and valued for holding the standards of the Melchizedek Priesthood in your home. Keep doing good in the World Brethren- now is not the time to give up or give in.

Talk soon, Brothers Stephen Merrell, Gary Moore, Rob Jess.

Jan. 23rd- How can the Lord help me serve more faithfully? Taught by Emery and Jamie

"Occasionally our children would ask us the question, "Why do I have to go to Mutual? I just't get very much out of it."

If I was having a good parenting moment, I would reply, "What makes you think you go to Mutual because of what you get out of it?"

My young friends, I can guarantee that there will always be someone at every Church meeting you attend who is lonely, who is going through challenges and needs a friend, or who feels like he or she doesn't belong. You have something important to contribute to every meeting or activity, and the Lord desires for you to look around at your peers and then minister as He would..... Young women and young men, next time you are at Mutual, instead of picking up your phone to see what your friends are doing, stop, look around, and ask yourself, "Who needs me today?" You may be the key to reaching out and touching the life of a peer or to giving encouragement to a friend who is quietly struggling."

Primary

From President Russell M. Nelson:

My dear young friends, I love you! When I see you, I think about my great-grandchildren. Did you know that in my family, we have more than 100 great-grandchildren under the age of 12? They are bright and very precious, just like you.

You are a beloved child of God. Please remember that fact. If you never forget that one pure truth, you can face any problem with faith and courage.

When you are baptized and confirmed, you make a promise that you will follow the Lord. And He promises that He will send His Spirit to guide you. Just think of the light and love you can bring into the world as a faithful follower of Jesus Christ!

My beloved young friends, I am so very proud of each one of you! I know that Heavenly Father watches over you. He loves you very much, and so do I.
